

SPACE

Are you a budding journalist or just love writing? Do you have a passion for reviews or love event photography? If so, SPACE is looking for you!

Contributing to SPACE is an ideal chance to get valuable experience and see your name in print. SPACE is your student newspaper and what you want to see in it is totally up to you. Please contact space@glos.ac.uk

WRITERS/REPORTERS

It goes without saying but we don't have a paper without articles written by you. We want articles on anything that is important to you, from problems with landlords, lectures and loans to fashion, fitness and food! We have some regular columnists but if you want to give it a go then send in some examples of your work.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

SPACE is always looking for photographers to take photos of sports games and also events. To arrange to shadow a game or photograph and events contact space@glos.ac.uk
